November 18, 1922. In connection with the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Erie Railroad Station and boarded the 7.02 a.m. train for Middletown, N.Y.

Upon arrival at Middletown, N.Y., Operative proceeded to the City Hall and consulted the City Directory in reference to the following names - Gibson, Eisleitner, Cerrenner, Kesselring, Easton, Muller, Williams, and found the following:-

Mrs. Sarah H. Gibson, widow of Clarence E. Gibson, 17 Olive St., Middletown, N.Y.

John H. Gibson, 17 Olive St., Middletown, N.Y.,
Benjamin Gibson, 130 Monhagen Ave., Middletown, N.Y.
Louis Gibson, 40 Monhagen Ave., Middletown, N.Y.
Anna W. Muller, 121 East Avenue, Middletown, N.Y.

The City Directory showed possibly twenty or thirty entries under the name of Williams - Operative did not find a Nellie Williams mentioned, therefore, did not canvass any addresses under that name.

Operative consulted the local telephone directory and found Benjamin Gibson, #28 Liberty St., Middletown, N.Y., telephone number 1327-M. Middletown.

Upon securing the above information, Operative proceeded to #121 East Ave., Middletown, N.Y., and there interviewed Anna W. Muller. Anna W. Muller advised Operative that she did not have, nor was she in any way related to any one by the name of Gibson or Easton.

Operative next proceeded to #17 Olive St., Middletown, N.Y., and there interviewed Mrs. Sarah H. Gibson, and her son Mr. John H. Gibson.

Neither one of the above Gibsons' knew of a Nellie Gibson, and upon being questioned by Operative, stated that they were in no way related to Mrs. Gibson or Mrs. Easton of New Brunswick, N.J., and in fact they did not have any relatives in that section of the country.
